OTTOLENGHI & THE CAKES OF VERSAILLES

Thu, Mar 11, 4:30pm & 7pm

MAGIC LANTERN CINEMAS, KETCHUM

Via London, Versailles, and Instagram, OTTOLENGHI AND THE CAKES OF VERSAILLES follows famous chef Yotam Ottolenghi on his quest to bring the sumptuous art and decadence of Versailles to life in cake form at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York. He assembles a team—a veritable who's who of the dessert world, including Dominique Ansel and Dinara Kasko—to help bring his vision to life. The pastry chefs create a true feast of Versailles complete with a cocktail whirlpool and posh jello shots, architectural mousse cakes, chocolate sculptures, swan pastries, and an edible garden. Ottolenghi acts as our guide throughout, disassembling pastries to give us the history of ingredients that we now take for granted, like sugar and chocolate. OTTOLENGHI AND THE CAKES OF VERSAILLES perfectly captures the heights of human achievement and the frailty of decadence, adding taste as one more sense with which to experience the Met.

STRAY

Thu, Mar 18, 4:30pm & 7pm

MAGIC LANTERN CINEMAS, KETCHUM

STRAY explores what it means to live as a being without status or security, following three strays as they embark on inconspicuous journeys through Turkish society. Zeytin, fiercely independent, embarks on adventures through the city at night; Nazar, nurturing and protective, easily befriends the humans around her; while Kartal, a shy puppy living on the outskirts of a construction site, finds companions in the security guards who care for her. The strays' disparate lives intersect when they each form intimate bonds with a group of young Syrians with whom they share the streets. Director Elizabeth Lo's award-winning film is a critical observation of human civilization through the unfamiliar gaze of dogs and a sensory voyage into new ways of seeing.

DIANA KENNEDY: NOTHING FANCY

Thu, Mar 25, 4:30pm & 7pm

MAGIC LANTERN CINEMAS, KETCHUM

DIANA KENNEDY: NOTHING FANCY is an intimate, candid perspective into the curious world of cookbook author and British ex-pat Diana Kennedy—widely regarded as the world's expert on Mexican cuisine. At five feet tall and 97 years old, Diana is larger than life: a foul-mouthed fireball far more feisty and energetic than her age and petite frame let on. Author of nine Mexican cookbooks, she has spent over 60 years researching and documenting the regional cuisines of Mexico. Kennedy has lived “off-the-grid” on an eight-acre ranch outside Zitácuaro, Michoacán since the 1970's: composting, growing her own crops, and using solar power to run her home. Aware of her own mortality, she is working tirelessly to solidify the legacy of her life's efforts, with the hope of turning her home into a foundation for culinary education in Mexico. Despite her notable achievements, Diana is difficult to categorize. Often referred to as the “Julia Child of Mexico,” but Diana prefers a different title: “The Mick Jagger of Mexican Cuisine.”

Thu, Apr 8, 4:30pm & 7pm

MAGIC LANTERN CINEMAS, KETCHUM

For the 6th consecutive year, Sun Valley Museum of Art and the Magic Lantern Cinemas present the Oscar-Nominated Short Film. With all three categories offered—Animated, Live Action and Documentary—this is your annual chance to predict the winners (and have the edge in your Oscar pool)! A perennial hit with audiences around the country and the world, don't miss this year's selection of shorts. The Academy Awards take place Sunday, April 25th.

WATCH AT HOME OPTION: we will have a dedicated webpage where you can rent the Oscar Shorts to watch at home. Once purchased, you'll have 30 days to screen the films.

OSCAR SHORTS—ANIMATED

Thu, Apr 18, 4:30pm & 7pm

MAGIC LANTERN CINEMAS, KETCHUM

April 18 brings the Animated Shorts to the Magic Lantern. As usual, there will be the Oscar Nominees, plus some additional "critic's picks" to round out the selection.

PLEASE NOTE: Animated shorts are often not "kid friendly"...these are generally films designed for an adult audience. We recommend checking back with us once the films are announced to see the recommended audience age.
